Valentine From

Lookin' for Love

by: Tina Valant

Through no fault of their own, this mama yorkie and her two daughters from different litters find themselves in need of a new home. It was a gut-wrenching decision, but their human mom is facing radiation and chemo for her cancer diagnosis. NONE of us ever plan to get sick, fired, be in an accident or lose our homes---so no judgement, please.

Brandi (1 y/o), Bianka (10 yr old), and Blossom (3 y/o)

Adoption is a process, including an application, home visit, and adoption fee.

They arrive in Boca on Saturday, February 11. If you/someone you know is interested, or willing to foster, please reach out to Tina at 561 945 6363.

Valentine Puns From The Dog

Roses are red. Violets are blue. Thanks for feeding me and picking up my poo.

I get the zoomies because we are roomies.

You are paws-itively fetching
and I totally woof you!

Romeo had Juliet but I chews you to be my Valentine.

You are bone-ified pawtastic so I am unleashing
my love fur you.

How Do I Luv Thee? Let Me Count The Wags

Valentine's Day is a day set aside for expressing your love and devotion to someone special. Of course, the someone special can also have four legs. Below are some fun activity ideas you can share with your BFF (best fur friend) to help make this Valentine's Day extra special.

- Surprise her with some bling - a new collar and heart-shaped ID tag, or a bandana with heart prints.
- Give her a soothing massage or relaxing belly rub as she cuddles next to you on the sofa.
- Have a spa day. Give her a bubble bath with lavender scented shampoo and of course a new rubber ducky.
- Take a walk along the beach or to her favorite spot. Allow her to take the lead this time and experience the world through her eyes.
- Have a Valentine's Day photo shoot. Wear matching outfits, use heart themed props like costume jewelry, fun glasses, then smile and click away.
 - Whether you use these suggestions or come-up with some of
 - your own, one thing for sure, the memories of this
 - fun-filled day will forever remain in both of your hearts.
