Does your dog need it's teeth cleaned. If so read this...

I wanted to have Fate's teeth cleaned. I normally do this once per year. I spoke to Pat Caruso & she told me that Tina Valant (our beloved member who passed away earlier this year) had given her a recommendation for a vendor who does non-anesthetic dental cleaning. I have to say that Tina, "God bless her soul" knew a LOT about pet care for ALL size dogs.

I decided to give it a try with the non-anesthetic approach. My reason being that I had Buttons teeth cleaned every year. When he was 12 I had it done. He went in with a small cataract in one eye. Within 3 weeks of him having his teeth cleaned he was completely blind in both eyes!!! I couldn't figure what happened to him. His life was forever changed after he lost his vision.

When I had Dr. Zafir come to the house to euthanize Buttons in '21 I told him about Buttons losing his sight within weeks of having a teeth cleaning. Dr. Zafir said that the anesthesia did it. That it was not uncommon for this to happen with older dogs given anesthesia. This is why even though Fate just turned 6 this sounded like a good option to try.

I cannot tell you how THRILLED I was with this service.... VIP Pet Smile.

Raphael Mattos was the tech & he was TERRIFIC! I got an appointment 9 days after calling.

Fate's teeth never looked better. He showed me before & after photos. She was completely calm when he brought her back in the house. I thought she would probably take off as soon as he put her down but to my surprise she actually went up to him to have him pet her!

They travel from Miami - Jupiter & do ALL size dogs. He showed me a video of him doing a Pit Bull.

The price was $170.00 & he did it in my driveway!

I HIGHLY recommend this company.

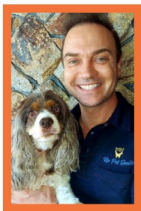

They sell all kinds of dental cleaning aids on their website.

I told Raphael that I was a member of GYTC as well as OTCPCB.

If you call please give them my name. I'd really like to help promote this business.

Thanks!

Thank you to everyone who submitted your photo & answer to - "the funniest nickname your Mom calls you".

Jessie shared her secret. when there is food involved she will respond to any nickname her Mom wishes to call her. Smart move Jessie!

Aura, you may have some explaining to do. Are your nicknames insinuating something?

Molly, we will be fact-checking your nickname. 'Molly Monster'! Not with your adorable face!

Sophie wishes to inform the group she will ONLY respond to her forename!
